

$$$ Reasons to Go Green!

A Sampling of Current Incentives & Rebates

Federal Government

Example:

Who's eligible:

For more information:

$2,000 per-home federal tax credit for builder

Builders building homes using 50% less energy than code

www.natresnet.org/taxcredits/default.htm

State Government

Example:

Who's eligible:

For more information:

Up to $2,000 for photo-voltaics or solar water heating systems

Homeowners and businesses in Washington State

www.solarwashington.org/action/2006/WA-Incentive.pdf

County/City Governments

Example:

Who's eligible:

For more information:

$2,500-$15,000 in per-project grants to defray green building expenses

Builders building 4- and 5-star Built Green™ certified single-family homes or residential developments in King County

www.builtgreen.net/incentive.html

Utilities

Example:

Who's eligible:

For more information:

$250 rebate on a high-efficiency ENERGY STAR® gas furnace

Builders & homeowners served by Puget Sound Energy

www.pse.com/solutions/rebatesOnAllRebates.aspx

Green Building Programs

Example:

Who's eligible:

For more information:

$500 per home for model homes, up to $2,500 in co-op advertising funds, and $250 for putting the program logo on your company website

Builders building homes certified as Northwest ENERGY STAR® Homes

www.northwestenergystar.com/index.php?CID=113

Other Possibilities...(It can't hurt to ask!)

Lenders

Product suppliers

Municipal governments